KAREN SOLTAU

JEFFERSON SENIOR

Karen Soltau Chosen Miss D. C. of '64

By LOUANNE HEATH

A HONEY BLONDE, lovely with twinkling blue-gray eyes, was crowned Miss Daly City last Wednesday night at the climax of a glamour-filled pageant in the South San Francisco Elks Club.

Seventeen-year-old Karen Soltau of 750 Hanover Street, who decided years ago that someday she would be a model, captured the judges' votes for poise, personality and figure during the final phase of the annual quest for the miss to represent Daly City.

Runnerup is Kathy Herleikson, 17, of 23 Crestline Drive.

"I heard the master of ceremonies announce the name of the winner and I looked around to see which girl was going to come forward. I guess I was too stunned or excited or something to realize that I was the one," Miss Soltau, a Jefferson High School senior, said after it was all over.

"I looked out in the audience and I saw my father and he looked so proud and happy. My brother Glen and my escort, Keith Callahan, were just beaming and I knew it was because they were so happy for me.

I had a hunch, right from the start, that I would make the finals. I wasn't counting on winning but I knew I sure wasn't going to put it down if I did," the new queen of beauty said enthusiastically.

FOR THE CONTEST, Miss Soltau selected a simple, one-piece, black bathing suit with white trim for the swim suit judging. A full length white ball gown with a garland of pink rose buds cascading diagonally across a fitted bodice and trailing down the side of the full skirt was her choice for the formal attire judging.

"The thing that frightened me the most about the contest," she confided, "was the part when you are asked to answer questions. I was sure they would ask me some-

Civic Center Lots Sold to Developers

D.C. Purchase Not Affected, Mayor Says

By RON BATES

A million-dollar land sale in Daly City, including 40 lots planned for the new Daly City Civic Center, was recorded last week in the County Recorder's office in Redwood City.

Owners of the property, Michael and Thomas Callan Jr., sold 103 lots to Alta Monte Properties, Incorporated. Daly City developer Gus Pedemonte is president of Alta Monte.

Daly City Mayor Micheal DeBernardi said the sale should have no effect on the city's purchase of the civic center land between 90th and 91st Streets and Edgeworth and Sullivan Avenues.

"If it did, the council would seriously consider pulling out of the purchase," DeBernardi said.

The city and the Callan interests had reportedly been "a few thousand dollars" apart in negotiations for the property.

A pre-trial conference on condemnation proceedings June 3 did not resolve the difference.

City Attorney Paul Hupf told the council members before he left on vacation last week that the value of the land would remain the same as it was when the city began condemnation proceedings in January.

Land values in condemnation proceedings are determined by recent sales in the area, Hupf explained.

The Callan firm did not show the city officials any proof of those sales to justify its higher price, he said.

Also included in last week's land sale are locations on 89th Street in the $75 Homestead tract, and on Edgewood, Lausanne and Gambetta Streets in Gambetta Park No. 1.

Pedemonte has apartment project proposals in those areas pending before the city council now.

Revenue stamps for the deeds indicated a total price of $1,068,500.

Holly Street Apartments Are Held Up

A charge by South San Francisco Fire Chief John Marchi that there would not be enough room to maneuver fire equipment and some last minute changes by developers prompted the South San Francisco City Council to halt and possibly kill plans for construction of a 65-unit apartment project on Holly Street Monday night.

It was the second time in a month that Marchi and the city's Planning Commission, which had approved the project, had bumped heads on the question of limited access.

Marchi told the City Council that a driveway planned between units was too narrow because of overhanging balconies.

A 28-foot-wide driveway is planned with a parking area under the building, he said.

However, balconies proposed for the first floor would be eight and a half feet from ground level on both sides of the driveway, leaving only a 20-foot-wide area for maneuvering—an area, Marchi said, that would be insufficient for his trucks.

The chief said he would have to back his equipment in to fight any fire and would be taking the chance of losing the equipment if a fire got out of hand.

Planners of the project had agreed to remove decorative trees in front of a driveway at Marchi's request, but said they couldn't do anything about raising the balconies.

Marchi's arguments about limited access and maneuvering room were voiced last month against a town house plan for

Thornton Beach to Be Dedicated

State, county and Daly City officials will attend the formal dedication of Thornton Beach as a completed state park at 11 a.m. Saturday.

State Senator Richard Dolwig, who was one of the prime sponsors of the park, will deliver the main address. Also scheduled to speak is Charles DeTurk, director of parks and recreation for California.

Daly City Mayor Micheal DeBernardi will serve as master of ceremonies.

Also expected to be on hand at the dedication are members of the county board of supervisors, the Daly City Council, state, county and city park and recreation commissions, Edward Dolder, chief of the state division of beaches and parks, Jess Chaffee, district superintendent of state parks, and Hugo Fisher, administrator of resources agencies for the state.

Local dignitaries taking part in the ceremonies include Superior Court Judge Frank Blum, Municipal Court Judge Charles Becker, Assemblymen Leo Ryan and Carl Britischgi, David Friedenberg, Fred Martin and Hugh Smith of the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce and Developer Henry Doelger.

Approximately $200,000 has been expended on improvement of the park and beach area, according to state officials.

D.C. Proposal Disappoints Police, Union

Personnel Unit Denies Most Requests

The Daly City Personnel Board last week held a tight rein on pay raises and fringe benefits for members of the police and fire departments and the Municipal Employes Union.

"Denied" was a favorite word used by board members in going over a number of proposals from various departments before the board recommended a 2½ per cent "cost of living" raise in most cases.

Police Chief Roland Petrocchi and union representative Frank Gillis expressed disappointment over the board's actions and said the claims they had presented were justifiable.

Petrocchi, whose policemen came out best of all with a 5 per cent increase, said he felt the increase was "not adequate," particularly in view of what he termed was recruiting difficulty experienced during the past year.

The Police Department had requested $698 per month for patrolmen and percentage increases above that figure for higher rank officers.

Petrocchi said that much more training and capabilities are required of police officers to cope with the problems of today.

Gillis noted the wage structure in Daly City was too low in view of the fact that the city now has a population of approximately 55,000 and is adjacent to San Francisco.

The union representative said he was especially disappointed that none of the fringe benefits were granted.

The union had asked for a 7½ per cent pay increase, a night differential, a health plan covering dependents, payment for unused sick leave, three weeks vacation after five years instead of seven, a work week of Monday through Friday with time and a half pay for Saturday and Sunday work, and a flat allowance plus nine cents

Tax Boost Is Foreseen In Pacifica

A proposed budget, which would require a tax increase of five and a half cents per $100 of assessed valuation, was presented to the Pacifica City Council last week by City Manager Karl A. Baldwin.

The present tax rate is $1.92.

The budget calls for a total expenditure of about $1.4-million—about $200,000 more than the figure in the current budget.

Councilmen tonight will begin a series of study meetings on the fiscal plan. Each item in the budget will be reviewed.

Baldwin said the new budget includes the first stage of a major capital improvement program for the city that will extend over a six-year period.

The budget provides for construction of a third fire station in the city—a branch station in the Fairmont area—and payment of first installment of a snorkel truck for the fire department.

PARTY AFTERMATH

Terra Nova Girl Killed in Crash

A popular Terra Nova High School girl was killed early Friday on her way home from a happy party at a friend's house, celebrating the end of the school year.

Crushed to death beneath the wreckage of the car in which she was riding was Charlene Eve Ansara, 17, daughter of Charles and Erna Ansara, of 1452 Serra Drive, Pacifica.

Highway Patrolmen Leonard Vance and Donald Woods estimated the car was going at least 75 miles an hour when it crashed on Cabrillo Highway in front of the Church of the Good Shepherd in the Sharp Park district of Pacifica.

One of the two boys in the car was critically injured. He is Richard Lee Nunes, 18, 97 Belhaven Avenue, Daly City. The driver, Michael B. Anderson, 18, 498 Manor Drive, Pacifica, escaped with minor injuries.

Unruh Repeal Move Bars a Pay Increase

By DON MILLER

The Jefferson Elementary School District's board of trustees reluctantly agreed Monday night it could not vote for an additional increase in teacher salaries because of a current attempt to repeal the $17-million school finance reform act (Unruh Bill).

In adopting a salary schedule earlier this year that called for a five per cent raise in teachers' pay, the board agreed to tack on another two per cent if the state legislature provided additional aid for school districts this year.

The Unruh bill, passed by the legislature, provides the additional state aid. It is scheduled to become effective August 21.

However, the California Smaller Schools Association has launched a petition for a referendum to repeal the act. The association objects to unification provisions in the law.

If the petition qualifies for the ballot, it would suspend the provisions of the Unruh act and

D. C. GIRDS FOR CONVENTION

The GOP Invasion

(Editor's note: This is the first in a series on the preparations for the July nominating convention of the Republican Party at the Cow Palace in Daly City.)

By LEE QUARNSTROM

DALY CITY TODAY is a relatively quiet suburban community with a population approaching the 60,000 mark.

But, come July 13, the city is going to be abustle with what promises to be one of the most raucous, noisy and bitterly contested political gatherings ever held — the 1964 Republican nominating convention.

As many as 25,000 outsiders are expected to pour into Daly City for the four-day convention, which will be held in the huge Cow Palace.

That figure includes 1,308 delegates, 2,308 alternate delegates, newspaper reporters, radio and television crewmen, GOP stalwarts and the curious who want to see just what goes on at a national convention.

Money, golden-toned praise and liquid refreshment will flow freely during the convention, but traffic won't, as the delegates and other personnel move to and from the Cow Palace and their temporary abodes at hotels and motels throughout the Peninsula and in San Francisco.

IT WON'T, OF COURSE, be the first such convention

(Please See Page 2, Col. 2)

A Banner Welcome

A 40-foot banner welcoming the 1964 Republican Convention to Daly City will be stretched across Geneva Avenue in front of the Cow Palace in ceremonies scheduled for 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

Several state, county and city officials, who will take part in dedication ceremonies of Thornton Beach earlier in the day, will also participate in the raising of the banner.

The cost of the banner will be shared by the city and by the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce.

5 Projects Get Planners' Okay

Plans for six apartment projects proposed by developer Gus Pedemonte were considered by the Daly City Planning Commission last week.

The commission approved five of the plans and held over the sixth.

The project held over is an apartment proposed at Eastmoor Avenue and Zita Manor. The plans previously had been held over and a revised proposal was given t he commission last week.

The property is zoned for commercial use. Pedemonte is seeking a rezoning.

Pedemonte said that a proposed service station at the intersection would require a larger parcel than originally anticipated. He also pointed out that plans for additional parking were included in the revised proposal.

Mrs. Maxine Driscoll of 35 Zita Manor objected to the rezoning on the grounds that the development would not be "compatible" to the adjacent residential area.

Mrs. Charles Ziebak of 85 Zita Manor said many children lived on the cul-de-sac street. She said the proposed apartments would add to a traffic hazard already there.

And she added that the apartments would be located between two schools, thereby increasing the danger of accidents.

The Pedemonte applications that received a green light were:

Rezoning from single family to apartments for property located west of Miriam Street between Knowles and Los Banos Avenues.

Rezoning from single family to apartments for property located on the east side of Santa Barbara Avenue south of the northern city limit line.

Rezoning from commercial to apartments on property on the west side of Sullivan Avenue, north of Eastmoor Avenue.

A variance in the city's lot coverage and front setback ordinance on Hoffman Street for three and a half blocks in the Chester Manor apartment project. Pedemonte had dedicated a 20-foot strip to the city because the street was undersized.

A variance in the city's front setback requirement to five feet on property on the south side of Southgate Avenue and east of the St. Francis Square Shopping Center.

thus wipe out any additional state aid until a vote could be taken on the repeal move.

The Jefferson trustees, while agreeing not to add the two per cent at this time, voted to reserve the right to boost teachers' salaries after July 1 should the referendum question be resolved and new state aid received.

By law, the district could not raise salaries after July 1 unless it voted to reserve the right to do so.

The salary schedule now provides a minimum of $5,250 and a maximum of $10,500.

In other action, the board adopted a tentative budget, calling for 1964-65 expenditures of $4,654,850.

The present tax rate of $2.50 per $100 of assessed valuation is at a legal maximum and cannot be raised.

In adopting the tentative budget, trustees agreed to discuss at a future meeting whether to hire a principal replacement for Olympia School.

Olympia's principal has moved to Daniel Webster School to replace H. Z. Weibel who has retired. If a replacement at Olympia is not hired, the school would share a principal with another school—a policy now in effect at some of the schools in the district.

Trustees gratefully accepted a gift of $825 from the M. Pauline Brown School P-TA for the purchase of library books and instructional aids.

The P-TA has requested that about $500 of the gift to be used to buy books.

Jeff District Selected for NEA Project

The Jefferson Elementary School District has been chosen as one of only two school districts in the United States to participate in one phase of a National Education Association (NEA) research project.

The project will seek to determine the extent to which teachers and administrators, working in close co-operation, can identify "critical time to teach problems and take action to remedy these problems" within the normal limitations of time and money.

The program is called the "Time to Teach Project."

Jefferson was singled out by NEA as one of two districts in the country having an "optimum relationship between the administration and the teaching staff" that would aid in carrying out the study.

The other district is in Greenwich, Conn.

District Superintendent Richard L. Foster told the district's board of trustees that four district schools will be involved in the project. Two of these are Thomas Edison and Colma Intermediate. The other two will be chosen in the fall, he said.

Baldwin said the new budget contemplates hiring of 19 additional municipal employes, mostly in the police and fire departments.

Councilmen heard a report from its transportation committee, headed by former mayor Gerry Schumacher, that plans are well under way to provide bus service to the Linda Mar area.

A plan has been formulated under which a private operator will be subsidized by local merchants.

for the Cow Palace. In 1956 Dwight Eisenhower and Richard Nixon won renomination for their successful bid to keep the two top posts in the nation's government.

But this year's convention, if indications prove correct, will be bigger and better, and certainly not so cut and dried.

At the only other national convention in the Bay Area, the Democrats nominated James Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1920. They lost to the GOP ticket of Warren G. Harding and Calvin Coolidge.

thing of world shaking importance and I wouldn't know the answer.

"What actually did happen was very lucky! Mr. Martin, (contest chairman Fred Martin) asked me about school and my grades and then he asked about hobbies and I told him I have been hunting deer, ducks and pheasant with my father since I was about 8.

"I've been doing a lot of trap shooting for the past three or four years. Fortunately, he knew a lot about trap shooting and I could tell a lot of the men in the audience were interested in that.

"He asked me a lot about shooting and I could answer his questions intelligently. That made me feel very lucky!" Miss Soltau said.

AS PROFICIENT as she is with a gun, Miss Daly City said she has elected to display one of her more conventional talents, baton twirling, when she competes in the County Fiesta Dream Girl contest in San Mateo this summer.

Miss Soltau is a familiar sight to sports fans who attend athletic events at Jefferson High School where she is one of the majorettes.

In the past she has twirled her parade baton and, on occasion, a fire baton at meets at the University of California, Stanford University, San Francisco State College and at San Mateo College where she was guest soloist during the half time of a recent basketball game.

The athletic Miss Soltau admits to an avid interest in all types of athletics, including girls' track and field events, which she had to give up when she decided to enter the beauty contest.

She is hopeful that her family will have a motor boat before the end of summer.

"I don't water ski or surf yet, but it sounds like so much fun I'm very anxious to try," she said.

For being named Miss Daly City, Miss Soltau won prizes and merchandise awards valued at about $3,000 —the biggest jackpot in the history of the contest and the biggest of any such contest in the county.

Master of ceremonies for the pageant was Martin. The contest is sponsored each year by the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce.

Judges were Lee Chamberlain, Sid Posner, Joseph Mottola and Daly City Councilman Bernard Lycett. Miss Soltau received her crown from Miss Daly City of 1963, Claudia Smith.

The judging was preceded by a fashion show featuring the Miss Daly City winners of the past 10 years.

A special award was given to the first Miss Daly City, Janet Jackson, for her work on the contest during the past nine years.

Since she took the title in 1954, she has worked with contest chairman Fred Martin in making arrangements and arranging for prizes for the contestants.

The police were granted a $100 raise in uniform allowance and extra pay for motorcycle officers of $40 a month.

In a regular meeting before the pay proposals were taken up, Robert Young was elected chairman of the Personnel Board. James Grealish was elected vice chairman.

S.S.F. Apartment Plan Held Over

Westborough calling for cul-de-sac streets 26 feet wide.

Realtor Robert Miller said the plans for the Holly Street project conformed with all building requirements of the city, including the health and safety code.

Mayor Patrick Ahern said that the council had received changes in the plans at 5 p.m. Monday afternoon and needed more time to study them.

"We can't promiscuously pass on these things," Ahern said. "Once those apartments are built, they're there forever."

The council dashed cold water on a heated debate that had been developing among the city Recreation Department and several soccer organizations in South San Francisco.

The soccer enthusiasts charged that they were receiving "a minimum of co-operation" from the Recreation Department and had been denied a request for their own soccer field.

After hearing both sides of the question from Recreation Director Robert Maxey and Peninsula High School Soccer League President Al Bertucci, Mayor Ahern suggested all parties cool off and iron out their differences at the conference table.

A council member will join the discussion.

Ahern also reported that a manually operated signal light will be installed at the intersection of Clay Street and Junipero Serra Boulevard where two children were killed earlier in the year.

The cost will be shared by the city and the state.

The late-model convertible veered off the roadway on the right side and knocked over some construction markers.

It then shot back across the roadway, climbed the guywire of a utility pole and smacked into the pole seven feet off the ground.

The auto exploded, showering parts for as far as 300 feet, and fell to the ground against a brick wall fronting the church property.

All three occupants were thrown out. The boys were hurled over the wall and landed in a bed of ice plant on the church property. The car came down on top of the girl, however, and crushed her.

Fire Capt. Ed. Girdler said when he arrived, only the girl's legs were showing beneath the wreckage. He and two other firemen and five passersby lifted the car off of the girl. She was rushed to Peninsula Hospital but was dead on arrival.

Anderson told officers he could not remember what happened. He said he did not know if he was driving. Nunes said, however, that he had felt sleepy at the house party and had gone to sleep in the back seat of the car. He was still asleep at the time of the accident, he said.

Young Anderson, son of Mrs. Natalie Anderson, was dismissed from Peninsula Hospital after treatment of contusions and abrasions. A former student at Oceana High School, he has been working as a sign painter.

Nunes, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Nunes, suffered a fractured collarbone, a shattered shoulder and multiple contusions and abrasions. He was a former student at Westmoor High School.

Meeting Fails to Halt Opposition To Hickey Route

A wall of opposition to the extension of Hickey Boulevard in South San Francisco to Skyline Boulevard was still pretty much intact this week despite a peace meeting among residents of West Winston Manor, the South San Francisco City Council and county engineer Don Wilson.

The meeting between members of the protesting West Winston Manor Homeowners Association and Wilson was arranged after city councilmen were unable to handle some of the technical questions thrown at them the week before.

Last night's meeting was not much more productive.

Wilson told the homeowners the route of the proposed extension of Hickey from Junipero Serra to Skyline had been computed to be "the best route" to serve the needs of the county.

"It's just like the arteries in your body," he said. "A highway has to be located in certain ways to function properly."

The engineer brought artist's renderings to show the effect of the proposed highway through the subdivision. He said the extension had been planned for ten years.

Wilson said that contrary to the beliefs of the homeowners, no part of the subdivision would be "isolated" and the traffic that the streets would receive would be no more than what they get now

John Siacotos, president of the association, said that many of the residents were under the impression that the plans for The South San Francisco City Hickey died two years ago with the defeat of a thirty-five-million-dollar bond issue.

Siacotos asked the city council why the homes were allowed to be built if it was known ten years ago that the road would go through there.

Councilman Andrew Rocca said:

"You can't say the road will go through until it does go through."

The homeowners questioned Wilson on the possibility of making Collins Avenue, just sixtenths of a mile north of Hickey, the cross-county lateral.

Wilson said that Collins would also be extended from Junipero Serra to Skyline, but it would serve a different purpose He said the county plans to extend Hickey all the way over to Hillside Boulevard.

Because of the location of the cemeteries, Collins cannot be extended further, he pointed out. Cemetery property cannot be taken by eminent domain proceedings.

Paul Kaufman, of 109 Langford Drive, asked Wilson about the road adding to the serious drainage problem that is in the area now.

He pointed out that his home had been rendered "marketless" because of damage that has occurred with "inadequate drainage."

Wilson said the water runoff would be increased, because the water would not be soaked into the ground. He said that the same thing would occur, however, as the Sierra Monte development is built.

PACIFICA ACCIDENT

Couple Flee Flaming Car

A young couple escaped from their overturned car moments before it burst into flames Friday afternoon after it rolled off the Sharp Park Road, Pacifica police and firemen reported.

According to Officer Charles Roberts, Gordon James Wylie, 21, of Sunnyvale, an employe of an electronics firm, lost control of his eastbound vehicle on a curve. The auto plunged off the road and turned over on its side but was stopped from rolling further down the embankment by a tree.

Wylie's passenger, Sandra Romeo, 21, of 359 Newman Drive South San Francisco, smelled smoke almost immediately.

Wylie kicked out the windshield of the vehicle and helped the injured Miss Romeo from the auto shortly before it burst into flames.

Firemen reported the auto was completely enveloped in flames by the time they arrived and nearby brush and trees were burning.

Miss Romeo was give first aid by a passerby and both she and Wylie were taken to Peninsula Hospital for treatment of minor injuries.

Underpass on Rte. 1 Opens

The new Gateway Drive undercrossing at Route 1 in Daly City has been opened to traffic.

New bus stops have been provided on either side of the freeway, with walkways to Gateway Drive.

When traffic has been shifted to the new Gateway Drive undercrossing, the existing intersection of the freeway at John Glenn Drive on the west and former Gateway Drive on the east, will be permanently closed, officials said.

The undercrossing was constructed in advance of the future construction of the nearby interchange of the Route 1 freeway and Skyline Boulevard as an interim measure for the safety and convenience of residents of this area, state engineers explained.

By LE PACINI

MAHMOUD ABOUZEID, Managing Editor of The Pacifica Tribune, holds a unique distinction in sports.

No one, in this country, has ever beaten him in a game of ping-pong. Primarily because Mahmoud, now grown up, was once Junior Ping-Pong champion of Egypt for three years hand-running.

Don't snicker, as people are prone to do when someone mentions ping-pong. For some reason, fans of rugged American sports, like golf, tend to think of ping-pong as synonymous with powder-puff.

Ping-pong happens to be one of the fastest, most exacting tests of skill and endurance — as played by real champions — in world sports.

Even though he was only 12 to 14 when winning his titles, Abouzeid, not immodestly, says that he doesn't know for sure of any American ping-pong player who could beat him. And Mahmoud's out of practice.

"I have a table at home," he says, "but being a fulltime newsman now, combined with the fact that I just can't find any competition, has left me rusty.

"A ping-pong player without a good opponent is as lost as a fighter without good sparring mates to keep him sharp."

MAHMOUD has gotten so rusty since he hit the States to attend San Francisco State College (where he became Editor of the Golden Gater), that a few opponents have even scored as much as six or seven points on him.

"There was a guy at State named Wasserman," says Mahmoud, "who could pretty consistently score maybe half a dozen points on me. He was pretty good."

Abouzeid's wife, Florence, was a tennis whiz in her undergraduate days. Her father, Gordon Jason, competed at Wimbledon in the late 1930s and early 1940s. Florence engages her cigar-chomping news hawk occasionally, and sometimes manages to score on him. How often? Mahmoud passes that off with a terse, "no comment."

"She's really plenty good," he says. "It's not hard to switch over if you've been a good tennis player. But it really isn't fair to compare her — or almost any other ping-pong player in the States — to me.

"America rates perhaps only seventh or eighth in world ping-pong standings. Don't forget, I played ping-pong for hours on end just as American kids play baseball daily.

"I've played three or four world champions, guys who would dazzle these traveling exhibitionists you may have seen in the United States from time to time."

Mahmoud is not offering any challenges through this column. He's too busy running down spectacular things other people do.

But he does leave a parting word.

"It's ping-pong," he says, grinding cigar between his teeth, much as would a baseball aficionado upon hearing his game called hard ball, "not table tennis."

RANDOM THOUGHTS: Officials keep denying the existence of the spit ball. Yet it seems every issue of the Sporting News not only has at least one item on the subject but appears to be engaged, periodically, in estimating how many spitter pitchers there are in each league. When you begin countin' 'em, there must be a little something to it. . . .

Ever stop to realize that baseball is just about the only sport extant where cheating (trapping low liners, throwing spitters, tossing in defective balls, etc.) is looked upon as a skill to be admired? . . .

Why is it that all pitchers remind Russ Hodges of somebody else? . . .This writer was probably the only ball player in the history of the world ever to play semi-pro baseball and not get paid for it. . . . With common, ordinary base hits becoming so uncommon, nowadays it's getting so that bunting the runner along for one run on a possible single is gambling, while going for the homer is actually more conservative, since it now seems more common than the ordinary base hit . . .

We're glad to see Eisenhower's gotten around to publicly posting his golf scores. Buffs used to think he demurred for fear of embarrassment. Looks like they were right. Ike didn t want to embarrass his opponents . . . In keepng with a theory we advanced a couple of weeks ago that relief pitching is an over-rated chore, keep in mind that you rarely see washed-up pitchers making comebacks as starters, but that you often see them returning as relief standouts. . . .

Wonder when some little old lady president of an animal protection society is going to step forward and protest jockeys putting their horses "under the whip," as the announcers so colorfully put it. . . .

Here's another wonder: when will they redesign the Indianapolis 50[illegible] track to accommodate cars that can now go 150 miles an hour. Essentially, they're using the same track built for cars which were considered really to be pushing it when they got up to 100 in the straightaways. It's like playing the Giants in a Little League park. . . .

Come to think of it, maybe the boys at Indy are right. The way the Giants are hitting, they might be more at home with the shorter porches. . . . Ol' Charley Finley at K.C. has really proved his point about shortening fences and loading up with power hitters, hasn't he? Any man who can keep his club only two or three games behind Washington is a real baseball genius, and Charlie fires managers to prove it. After all, Eddy Lopat should, too, have gone out there and pitched and caught flies and made doubleplays for ol' Charley. The lazy rat-fink!

OUR NOMINATION for funniest news item of the year thus far goes to the recent AP report describing how hammer thrower Al Hall, demonstrating his technique before the TV cemeras in Massachusetts, forgot to let go of the thing and ended up with nine stitches in his face.

Reminds us of a Krazy Kat cartoon we once saw.

NOMINATION for most heartening sports item thus far is the recent donation of $25,000 by SCRAMP (The Sports Car Racing Association of the Monterey Peninsula) to a cancer-treatment unit at the Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula.

We guess not all sports car guys are wild kids or mixed-up playboys who go tearing around the countryside, terrorizing pedestrians.

Father-Son Golf Teams To Compete

Sign-ups for the 14th annual Roos-Atkins northern California Father and Son Golf tournament started Saturday

Last year the Daly City team of George and Jim Fair defeated Bernard and Brad Lozares of San Jose for the championship.

In a thrilling match, the Fairs won from the Lozares 1-up after the Lozares had cut a healthy 4-down deficit. But the Fairs held on and finally copped the crown.

The 1964 tournament begins its 18-hole qualifying rounds on Saturday and Sunday, July 11 and 12, and continues with weekend match play until the finals on Sunday, August 2.

Play will again be held at the Golden Gate Park course, which the San Francisco Recreation and Park Commission has made available for this traditional family competition.

Entries are limited to 160 teams of Father and Son golfers or 320 players. Each Father and Son team will play one ball making alternate shots including tee shots.

Closing date for entries is Saturday, June 27.

Sugar 'n' Spice

By Nell Norton

IN KEEPING with my public service policy of noting the important events in the week, may I point out the Alaska Purchase was announced June 20, 1867. Doesn't that knowledge make your life worth living?

Another event that occurred last week must be noted also—school's out. I add this bit of information just in case you haven't noticed that the children are around the house more than usual. Did I hear you say: "I've noticed, I've noticed already."

Today, or to be more specific, tonight the Ice Follies opens in San Francisco and what recipe do I have that could in any way tie in with this fact? What other than ice cream pie?

This recipe and the recipe for Chicken Regene come from the Clarendon Cooks, the cook book put out by the P-TA at Clarendon School in San Francisco. Mrs. Rene Herzstein contributed both of these recipes and after making both of them I must say Mrs. Herzstein is quite a good cook.

ICE CREAM PIE

22 cream filled chocolate cookies
⅓ cup melted butter
1 quart of ice cream
2 squares of unsweetened chocolate
1 small can (6 oz.) condensed milk
½ cup granulated sugar
1 tbsp. butter

Roll cookies fine and mix with melted butter. (May I add here that I found it easier to put the cookies through a food chopper, coarse grind.) After combining the cookies and butter, press into a pie pan and refrigerate until firm. Then add ice cream, pressing it smooth. Freeze. (Peppermint or coffee flavored ice cream is particularly good.)

Make the icing as follows: Melt chocolate in double boiler, add condensed milk, sugar and butter Cook until quite thick, or until it makes a ball in cold water. Let icing cool before putting on the ice cream. Freeze until ready to serve.

As you can tell when reading the ingredients for this dessert, it is not a dieter's delight—but it surely is great when you throw away the calorie counters. And the fact that it can be prepared well ahead and frozen makes it a nice party dessert.

THIS CHICKEN DISH is delicious and really quite easy to prepare. Don't let the long list of ingredients intimidate you, for most of them go into the sauce and it's a simple matter of measuring and mixing.

CHICKEN REGENE

2 frying chickens, cut up
Seasoned flour
Margarine
2 tbsp. butter
1 chopped onion
1 chopped green pepper
1 clove garlic, chopped
1 cup dry white wine
1 tsp. salt
½ teaspoon ground black pepper
1 tsp. curry powder
½ teaspoon chopped parsley
1 teaspoon thyme
2 cups canned tomatoes
½ cup currants
¼ pound blanched salted almonds

Roll chicken in seasoned flour and saute in margarine. When brown, remove to large casserole dish and prepare sauce.

Melt the butter in a large skillet, add onions, green pepper and garlic, brown slightly and then add the white wine, salt, pepper, curry powder, parsley, thyme, tomatoes, currants and almonds.

When sauce begins to simmer, pour over chicken and bake in 325-degree oven for about 45 minutes. Serve over steamed rice.

In this recipe, as in all recipes, adjust the seasonings to your family's taste. For example, I cut the amount of curry powder to one-half teaspoon, giving the dish a very mild curry flavor.

Serving a dinner like this can be fun for you can let your imagination roam in the side dishes you add. Recalling a dinner I'd had at a restaurant featuring cooking from India, I used chutney, chopped peanuts, and grated cocoanut. Probably you have other ideas of what to add to make it even more interesting and appealing to your family.

Nadine Carole Poulon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus G. Poulon of Daly City, became the bride of Robert C. Thorpe of Grants Pass, Ore., in wedding ceremonies recently at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church.

Father Matthew Sullivan performed the wedding ceremony.

Doll Program Featured at B'nai Brith

A "Dolls for Democracy" program was presented at a meeting of the Skyline B'nai B'rith Women last Tuesday, at the Lake Merced Sports Center.

Presenting the program were Mrs. Norman Stone, Mrs. Norman Steinberg, Mrs. Norman Tauber, Mrs. Gilbert Toibin and Mrs. Bernard Feinberg. Co-ordinating chairman was Mrs. Seymour Zins.

The presentation consisted of stories about lives of the world's great humanitarian. The stories, told by the five women, transcend color, race and faith barriers and are actually lessons in good human relations on a level that children comprehend. The program has been presented before a wide variety of youth groups and civic and church organizations.

The "Dolls for Democracy" is part of the B'nai B'rith Women's Anti - Defamation League program.

Louanne's Datebook

JUST STARTING to savor that feeling of spring in the air? Well, it's time to start thinking about fall and the fashion designers are already clearing away the frothy summer things and showing us what we will be wearing when the flowers have all wilted and the gardens again have that barren look.

As difficult as it may be for us to pass over the glories of the summer months before they have even arrived, it is time to begin saving the clothing allowance and studying the magazine advertisements to see to it that we get our money's worth in fall styling and colors.

One of the most enjoyable ways to sample the trends is to attend the Silver Jubilee Fashion Show and luncheon being given October 24 by the Mothers' Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Daly City.

Mrs. Milon Stanley will be general chairman of the event, which will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the founding of the club. Mrs. Dorothy L. Bergin will be in charge of publicity.

According to Mrs. Bergin, the fashion show committee is eager to have everyone on hand to help "ring out the silver jubilee bells," preview the fall fashions and enjoy the marvelous cuisine at the Thunderbird Hotel in Millbrae.

Note to the wise shopper: save those silver dollars now so that you can enjoy the show first and then shop confidently for that new wardrobe.

MRS. L. WARREN PRICE of Daly City has been elected president of the Mary's Help Hospital Guild, according to another localite, Mrs. Kingsley B. Eaton who is the new publicity chairman for the auxiliary.

Serving with Mrs. Price and Mrs. Kingsley are Mrs. Helen Vollert, vice president; Mrs. William Corbett, treasurer; Mrs. Clifton West, recording secretary; and Mrs. James Cummins, Mrs. T. H. Pitt and Mrs. Al Costantini will serve on the board of directors. Mrs. Frank Kelechava is the chairman of the auxiliary's gift shop.

IN CASE you missed the television show that featured some of Daly City's youngest talent, you will have a chance to see Mrs. Hal Fox and a group of youngsters from the creative play group program of the San Mateo County YWCA—again this Sunday afternoon.

The group, which is featured in a segment of "It's Happening Here," at 1:30 o'clock on Channel 5, helps demonstrate the scope and depth of modern social work in the bay area. It is a facinating show, even if the participants aren't known to you personally. So try and find time to be in front of your TV for at least a half hour on Father's Day.

SAD FAREWELLS were bid Dr. and Mrs. Edward Wolfe at a Mizpah party given in their honor at the parsonage of the Wesley Methodist Church in Westlake, recently.

Mrs. John Morton, retiring president of the Women's Society of Christian Service, was chairman of the reception given to mark the retirement of Dr. Wolfe, who has spent 48 years in the ministry.

Dr. Wolfe, who accepted a call to the Wesley Methodist Church just a year ago, will attend a churchmen's conference at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, serve as interim pastor of a church in Millbrae and then tour the Midwest prior to the time that he and Mrs. Wolfe will establish their new home in a senior citizens' community in the Walnut Creek area.

A SPECIAL COURSE of summer dance classes has been organized for the second year by Mrs. Bianca Caserza and the Westmoor Dance group in an effort to have a continuing program of recreation and education for this area's younger set during the summer months.

According to Mrs. Caserza, the summer session will run for six weeks with classes being held each Tuesday and Thursday from June 23 until July 30 in the Garden Village Nursery School, 417 North Park View Drive.

Tumbling classes will be offered for boys from four to seven years of ago at 9:30 a.m. with pre-school instruction in dancing for boys and girls at 10:15 a.m. Classes for boys and girls in kindergarten and first grade will be given at 11 a.m. Instructors will be provided by the Dick Ford Dance group.

THE PACIFICA BRANCH of the American Fuchsia Society will hear a talk by Mrs. Susie Waltz during the group's regular monthly gathering scheduled for this Friday night at 8 in the Sharp Park School, according to Mrs. Sherry Thomas.

SOME FAMILIES manage to make the heads of mere mortals spin when they take inventory of the number of activities in which they are involved. Such a family unit is that of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schaltz of Westlake.

Last Wednesday evening, Mrs. Ellamae Schaltz was installed as the president of the Mt. Vernon Ladies during ceremonies held at San Francisco's Fisherman's Wharf, and thus climaxed, at least temporarily, her social commitments for the spring. Intalled with Mrs. Schaltz was Mrs. Mitzi Donninelli, new sunshine chairman of the group, which is dedicated to assisting the men of Mt. Vernon Masonic Lodge with the arrangements for dinners and social gatherings hosted by the lodge. Mrs. Crystal Moxley was the retiring president.

The dinner party installation was just one more exciting eventin the ever eventful life of Mrs. Schaltz. Recently, she was guest soloist at a World Service program presented by the San Francisco YWCA and just days prior to that, she had presented a May Time program as part of a program for the Albert Pike Chapter of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Esther Bentz was general chairman of the evening and was responsible for the exceptional table decor. Mrs. Schaltz was program coordinator.

Not only is the recently retired secretary of the Daly City Park and Recreation Department busy with lodge work and her home, she also finds time to sing with the Belletones of the Daly City Community Chorus and is always on hand to see her son and daughter take part in their activities. Daughter Jessica was installed senior princess of Job's Daughters Bethel 107 last week and son Herman has won three dance contests this spring. A real inspiration to those of us who tend to complain we are overworked!!

COMMENT

A Sad Case of Penny-Pinching

DURING THE recent primary election a number of Post readers called to complain about the use of soiled and badly worn American flags outside many of the county's 606 polling places.

Some of these people took the trouble to count the stars on these flags and discovered that they were 48-star flags, long outmoded since the admission of Alaska and Hawaii to the Union of the United States.

The justification offered for the use of these old flags, by county officials, is that new flags cost $5 each and that the county cannot afford to replace all of them and is buying 50 new flags each year.

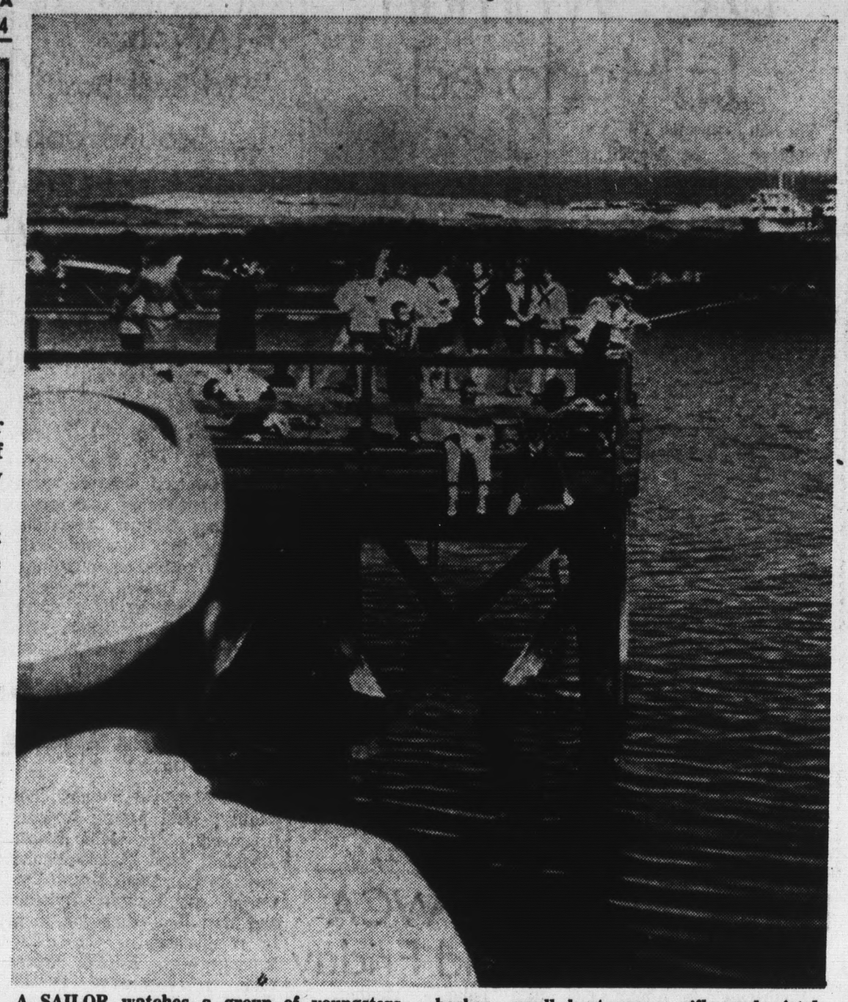
The explanation does the county little credit. It is a statement of stinginess and parsimony carried to a ridiculous length. A county with an annual budget of nearly $49 millions can most certainly afford the trifling expenditure needful to show the proper respect to the official emblem of the United States.

IT IS INCUMBENT upon local government to set an example of patriotism for the citizenry and it is a sad commentary when this turns out to be an example of penny-pinching at a picayune level.

We suggest that it would be a good idea for the county to unsnap the rubber band from its pocketbook, let the moths out, and part with enough money to buy new flags for the polling places.

The people respect the flag even if the county does not.

Fishing at Coyote Point



A SAILOR watches a group of youngsters fish off a pier at San Mateo County's Coyote Point Park. Located on San Francisco Bay northeast of the Bayshore Highway at the Peninsula Avenue overpass in San Mateo. The 402-acre park has picnic facilities, a yacht harbor, small boat ramp, rifle and pistol range and other recreational areas. This is another in a series of pictures, depicting parks and historical areas within a day's driving time of North County points.

Pacific Parade

Let's Hold That Tiger

Don Miller

FROM BOVINES to Beatles, from an Army staging area to a GOP staging area—that's Daly City's very own Cow Palace.

And as city officials begin to realize the wide diversity of functions the big arena can accommodate, they also are beginning to realize they grabbed a tiger by the tail when the Cow Palace was annexed along with Bayshore City back in August.

That tiger has a hectic schedule mapped out in coming weeks and a busy time for the tiger means an even busier time for the city—specifically, for Daly City's finest.

For since the Geneva Avenue gargantua joined its fold, Daly City has been responsible for providing police and traffic supervision—something the San Mateo County Sheriff's Department and the California Highway Patrol used to do before.

This responsibility would have reached its weightiest level Friday evening when the nation's chief executive had planned to drop over to the big Emporium for a friendly chow-down with Democratic faithful—a $100-a-plate snack had been planned to raise $400-000 for the party's coffers. The dinner was shifted this week to the new Hilton Hotel in San Francisco.

NOW THE arrival of a president is cause enough in any city for considerable excitement and considerable advance planning but since the assassination of President Kennedy, these arrivals have been preceded by an extraordinary amount of extremely detailed preparation.

That was evidenced in Lyndon Johnson's first visit to New York City after he became President and it would have been very much in evidence right here in the North County Friday evening.

Practically the entire Daly City Police Department was on duty or subject to call during the President's visit.

Days off, accumulated time off and vacation time for almost every man in the department had been cancelled for the day.

Daly City's men in blue would have been on duty — in force — both within and without the big arena.

That force was to be augmented by and would have worked hand-in-hand with other Bay Area enforcement agencies in providing the President one of the tightest security nets ever thrown up in these parts.

The Secret Service, of course, is primarily responsible for the President's protection while he's in the nation's capital and while he's traveling.

The G-Men aren't saying exactly what precautions they've devised for their boss' visit but they've indicated the measures will be substantial.

The exact route Johnson was to have followed in proceeding to the Cow Palace Friday evening had not been announced nor the time.

That's in keeping with a policy adopted since Kennedy's assassination of not revealing specific routes and times until only a few hours before the President's appearance.

ONCE THE Democratic gathering had ended, Daly City would have had only a three-week breathing spell before the tiger wags that tail again—this time for the biggest to do the town will this year. By far.

It's the Republican Convention and at this writing, the show could turn out to be a gigantic rubber stamp or a hellzapoppin', knock-down struggle between the senator from Arizona and the governor from Pennsylvania.

The aspect of the GOP gathering that has city and police officials worried is the threat of civil rights demonstrations — voiced some time ago by Martin Luther King and repeated since then by other integration leaders.

With the spectre of the recent San Francisco demonstrations hanging over it, Daly City is determined not to be caught short should civil rights strife flare at the Cow Palace.

Friday evening at the War Memorial Community Center, for example, a group of police officers met for a second training session on how to deal with demonstrators.

Ed Tomasello of the city's recreation department, a past master in the art of judo, showed the group how to gently but firmly separate a group of people who have sat down and locked arms.

This morning, a delegation of Daly City officers met with San Mateo County Sheriff's deputies and members of the San Francisco police department for a joint training program in San Francisco's Hall of Justice.

Like the Friday night session, today's meeting was destined to teach officers how to effectively handle demonstrators.

AFTER THE GOP convention, the city will have another short breathing spell before the tiger gets rambunctious again. And from all indications, it should be a pretty difficult tiger to cage.

We're speaking of the Beatles, that mop-headed quartet of British music (??) makers who will invade the Cow Palace August 19.

An inkling that the session could get a bit turbulent was provided last week when Ringo Starr, the 23-year-old drummer, weathered a four-hour airport stopover in our own backyard on his way to rejoin his Beatle compatriots in Australia.

Ringo was greeted by a howling gathering of 500 young ladies who easily drowned out the big jets overhead with soaring crescendos of shrieks and screams.

That was 500. On the evening of August 19, it will be 16,500. For the Cow Palace was sold out long ago for this British invasion.

All of which means that the tiger's roar that night should be heard all the way back to Beatleland —a land, we're convinced, should never have been granted an export license in the first place.

North County Notebook

The Councilmen Had Red Faces

Ron Bates

THERE WERE red faces at the South San Francisco City Council meeting a couple of weeks ago when Mayor Patrick Ahern put in a plug toward the end of the meeting for the city's annual Clean-Up week.

One South San Francisco resident asked the cooperation of the city councilmen who were returned to office in April in removing some of their campaign posters that still decorate the countryside.

The one with the reddest face was Frank Bertucelli, who topped the voting after a strong campaign and saturation poster coverage throughout the city.

Bertucelli, Ahern pointed out, had made a good attempt at trying to get all his posters down but he put up so many he forgot where he put them all.

The resident also noted that the worst offenders were trustees whose campaign posters had been left over from last year's school board race.

A RIDE THROUGH the older section of Daly City though would show, however, that South San Francisco isn't the only area with left-over signs.

I've seen signs on telephone poles asking voters to cast their ballot for Micheal Debernardi and Bob St. Clair.

Debernardi will be up for re-election in about a year and a half and I can see where those signs might be useful. But St. Clair's signs won't do him any good except to advertise the name of his liquor store.

Signs in a municipal election are funny animals and I don't think anybody will come up with the full, correct rationale as to their value.

There are those who argue that too many signs or signs too big can kill you in an election. They say the voters begin to wonder where the money is coming from for such an expenditure—especially when the city is saturated with them.

Then again, there are those who argue for a lot of signs and use as their prime argument the techniques of "subliminal advertising."

FOR THOSE of you who don't know what "subliminal advertising" is, I'll tell you or at least give you the same explanation that was given to me.

Subliminal is defined in Webster's as below the threshold of consciousness or apprehension. In other words, too slight to be perceived.

In an experiment, a film was shown of such things as a man petting a dog or helping an old lady across the street. The viewers of the film, according to what they know they saw, should have liked the man. But then found themselves hating him.

Quick flashes of the man kicking the dog or striking the old woman had been inserted in the film at a speed too fast for the conscious to react to but slow enough for the subconscious to catch. They instilled in the viewer a distaste for the man.

This is one reason why magazines charge a fortune for their back covers. As the magazine sits face down on the coffee table, subliminal advertising is taking place.

But I have wandered.

The proponents of signs figure that the voter who hasn't really thought of the issues or the candidates will support a candidate whose name is familiar.

JEAN FASSLER'S signs in the recent supervisor's race were by far the best looking signs seen in prominent places in many a moon.

She definitely got the male vote in many quarters on the basis of her picture on the posters.

The unique process of supervisors running county-wide (only two counties in the state use this system) would have presented a problem to Mrs. Fassler and to her opponent —winner Joe Verducci — if Verducci had not polled 50 per cent plus one of the vote. The candidates would have had to participate in a runoff election in November.

They would have had to decide whether or not to leave their signs up until November. Overexposure, weather, malicious mischief (mustaches on the pictures) are a few of the risks they would have run.

Verducci, incidentally, had a good sign campaign going for him. On April 15, one day after the municipal election, "Verducci for Supervisor" signs went up all over the country.

The move was well timed because local municipal candidates had placed their signs in the most strategic places. They were quickly replaced by the Verducci signs.

With this sort of subject, I can't say good-bye. I have to say I'm "signing" off.

Triple Play for C. of C.

IT'S BEEN a busy season for the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce.

The annual Outstanding Student Awards dinner last month was, as usual, a success.

Ditto for the Chamber's golf tournament May 29.

To cap off a perfect spring season for the C. of C. the local businessmen's group last week presented the 10th anniversary pageant of the Miss Daly City contest, selecting Karen Soltau to reign over the city for the next year.

This is probably the year of the Chamber's biggest triple play of Brains, to Brawn to Beauty.

If the Chamber's annual schedule included nothing more than these three events each year, the organization would still be earning its applause.

Our congratulations to the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce and good luck to our tenth Miss Daly City.

The Marquee

Deal on A Diamond

Barbara Bladen

SOME BUSINESS deals are discussed on the golf course, some over lunch, some in a bar. Erich Faust expects to make the most important contact of his career on the softball diamond. He may be an idealist but he knows a lot about show business.

The aspiring young producer will be quitting his sales job in the record department of Sherman Clay in Hillsdale to try his luck at an Off-Broadway play. He leaves for New York August 6 with a lot of ambition, optimism, promises from Peninsula backers for almost half of the $20,000 capital needed to produce "The World Is Round" and the background of a sound drama education.

"My big hope is to cast George C. Scott. He's a great softball fan and manages and pitches for a team when he's in a show. I met him during 'Andersonville Trial' and will ask him to read my script."

Donald Davis, New York star of "Krapp's Last Tape" and Robert Loggia of "Toys in the Attic" are actors Erich also is considering.

THE PLAN for producing the Armaund Salacrou drama is no fly-by-night venture. Erich is familiar with the play, having appeared in its only two American productions.

It was while studying drama at San Jose State College with Dr. James H. Clancy, who did the English translation of the play, that he began thinking seriously about becoming a director. When the highly esteemed drama coach accepted a post at the University of Iowa, four of his students transferred with him. There they did the play again and its second production was again well received.

Clancy then went to Europe, returned to the Peninsula, for a year of teaching at Stanford University and is now head of the drama department at Dartmouth where the facilities include the multi-million dollar Hopkins Art Center.

He is rewriting some of the dialogue, with the author's permission, and will be the production's special advisor. Salacrou has been favorably compared with Jean Anouilh but is less well known in America.

THE PLAY is about Savonarola, a Dominican monk, who in 1492 refused to bless Lorenzo the Magnificent because of his sins. He predicted the DeMedici's death, was called a prophet and took control of Florence. An opposer to the Borgia pope, he remained the spiritual and political ruler for six years. The plot is historically factual except for the ending which has been made more dramatic.

The erstwhile producer is the son of Mrs. Esle Faust of Palo Alto who teaches in San Carlos. His impressive background includes studies at the Neighborhood Playhouse in New York, with Bobbie Lewis, who is now an instructor at the Lincoln Center and with the famous Lee Strasberg at the Actor's Studio.

He returned to the Peninsula for the practical experience of directing, which he gained at the Palo Alto Community Theatre and Comedia Repertory Theatre. Steve Kaye, an alumnus of the Goodman School of the Theatre in Chicago and currently on the staff at Comedia, will join Erich in New York as set designer and associate producer.

Peninsula Panorama

His Generosity Was Just Ducky

George Whitesell

FROM THE DEEP southern reaches of the Peninsula we have today for the gentle readers a really ducky little story.

It is a bird of a tale and the villain of the piece, believe it or not, was the Easter Bunny.

Not that the Bunny is a real villain, it is just that some of his Easter generosity has gone sadly awry.

He fell into the trap of good intentions, like many other people, and started something that other people have had a hard time finishing.

On last Easter Sunday, the Bunny sort of outdid himself when he visited a happy family of two innocent parents and their daughters, aged four and six.

He brought the customary gifts of eggs, candy eggs, and other goodies in fancy gift baskets. But carried away by the spirit of the thing and assisted by an uncle of the little girls, he also presented them with three cute, downy and "simply adorable" little live baby ducklings. (We warned you this was a ducky story.)

It was a very happy occasion. The two little girls were entranced with their live pets and, after being dissuaded from squeezing them to an untimely end, they spent hours watching and feeding them.

Somewhere along in the day someone got the bright idea of introducing the ducklings to the family swimming pool and this was an instant success. The tiny trio navigated around like so many PT boats.

IN THE EVENING a cardboard carton was turned into a duck house and everyone was happy.

They stayed happy for about three weeks.

But they the ducklings began to grow and grow and grow. In almost no time at all they graduated to being real ducks and put on classy suits of white feathers instead of yellow down.

Meanwhile, they started to eat heartily and got heartier about it every day. After five weeks they were suspected of being the first white, web-footed vultures in the history of ornithology.

They ate anything and everything. They ate snails and insects from the garden in the backyard and that was good. They also ate the tender young bedding plants and that was bad.

They ate all of the grain and other food put out for them, but they also developed a fondness for kibbled dog food and took to stealing the dog's dinner.

Nothing would stop them from gobbling beads, buttons, and small plastic toys. One of them spent his days pecking at a plastic beach ball more than twice his own size — but he never made the grade on that.

On one fatal day, they discovered they could quack and they took up quacking with vast enthusiasm.

AS SOON AS they were proficient, they took to quacking the whole family up each morning and were sometimes heard to let out sleepy quacks in the middle of the night. Bad duck dreams no doubt.

They staked out their early claim on the swimming pool and took it over. They would get highly indignant if anyone else wanted to use the pool.

Lastly, we are told, they were far from fastidious in their habits and this did not endear them to anyone.

Within the span of three months they passed from being "those darling little ducklings" to being "those damned ducks."

THE GENTLEMAN of the house began to think in terms of roast duck with cherry sauce, but this sent the little girls into a tearful tantrum.

The lady of the house sent for the uncle who had assisted the Easter Bunny in bringing the ducks, but he had flown away to Hawaii and knew not what he had wrought.

Then, at last, there was no ducking the issue. The ducks had taken over and they had to go. Amid tears and plaintive pleas they were deported to a ranch near Atwater where at last reports they were busy intimidating all the ducks along the irrigation ditches.

The moral to this story, if there is one, is that the Easter Bunny had better stick to the egg distributing racket, and lay off duck eggs at that.

N. County Bride

MRS. JOHN CASEY
(Milton Mann Studios)

Patricia Ann Ricci and John Casey Are Married

Patricia Ann Ricci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Ricci of 160 Peoria Street, Daly City, and John Joseph Casey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Casey of 738 Athens Street, San Francisco, were married in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church.

The bride attended Immaculate Conception Academy and Mary's Help College of Nursing.

For her wedding, she wore a full length gown of Alencon lace and silk organza with removable chapel train of Alencon lace, edged in silk organza. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Ricci wore a pink silk shantung sheath with [illegible] length sleeves and a p[illegible] organza hat.

The bride's sister, Judith, was the maid of honor. Other attendants included another sister, Donna Lee, and Joyce Rodriguez.

The groom attended Balboa High School and John O'Connell Trade School.

The best man was William Dougherty. Ushers were Victor Esposto and Thomas Ryan.

The bride was given away by her father. The Rev. James Bergin, pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, performed the wedding ceremony.

A reception was held later in the San Francisco Rowing Club. The couple honeymooned in Southern California and will live in Westlake.

Big Brothers Need Volunteers

Big Brothers of the San Francisco Bay Area need additional help, according to Tom Disher, recruitment chairman.

Any mature, adult male interested in forming a rewarding companionship with a boy who is without a father at home is urged to call the Big Brothers' San Francisco office at 101 Broadway, YU 1-3304.

Big Brothers, according to Disher, are drawn from all walks of life and come from San Francisco, Marin County, Oakland and the Peninsula.

Court St. Mary Gives Awards

"Christian Doctorian Awards" were given to David Pray and Linda Rowe as the outstanding boy and girl in the eighth grade graduating class of Our Lady of Perpetual Help by Court St. Mary, Catholic Daughters of America.

The awards, for their proficiency in the religion, were presented at the graduation ceremonies of the class last week.

The next meeting of the court will be held at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish Hall tomorrow at 8 p.m.

Students Give Teacher Shower

Gail Hultgren, a teacher at George Washington School, was given a surprise party recently by her fourth grade class in celebration of her marriage this summer.

The mother of one of her students, Robert Ayala, talked a baker, John Fall, into donating a cake and student Margie Ciuball collected money for a gift. Miss Hultgren received a corsage, a set of glasses and a towel set from her students.

B'nai B'rith Sets Meeting

Seven Hills Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women will meet at 8 p.m. next Wednesday in the Lake Merced boathouse.

Prior to the meeting, a representative from Pan American Airlines will show a color movie about Eurpe and will demonstrate how to correctly pack a suitcase for a trip.

Sixth Grade Holds Picnic

Students of the sixth grade classes at George Washington School were treated to a picnic at Sigmund Stern Grove in San Francisco.

A total of 140 students attended. Principal Dr. Bernhard Gerdes was given a framed portrait of himself drawn by Diane Rooney, daughter of P-TA president Al Rooney.

Mrs. June Bianchini was chairman of the picnic.

As a graduation gift, the students left money to buy something for the library.

BETTER BUSINESS

Sewing Machine Racket Is Big

By LORENE BEASLEY
Editor, Better Business Bureau "Barometer"

THE SEWING machine racket is one of the greatest consumer complaints the Better Business Bureaus receive.

The fake advertising of unethical dealers, using millions of dollars of newspaper, radio and TV advertising, is not a new operation but dates back to the end of World War II when a number of American patents expired and a few foreign manufacturers began copying obsolate American-made models.

Because the average woman knows little about a sewing machine and its fancy and expensive attachments, unethical American dealers are able to trick the public by peddling foreign-made machines carrying American brand names.

Gullible customers are led to believe they are buying a name brand or another machine put out under the brand-name manufacturer. Under the prominently displayed brand name will be found stamped in small letters "Made in Japan."

The biggest racketeer is the dealer who advertises brand name machines he has no intention of selling. Such dealers, known as bait advertisers, use the names of White, Kenmore, Singer and Free-Westinghouse as bait to trick the potential customer into buying an unknown brand at a high price.

AN ALERT customer will recognize the phony advertising of these dealers as one of the machines can only be purchased in a large chain store; another machine is sold solely through its own sewing centers and another name brand is sold only through department stores or the manufacturers' own or franchised outlets.

The sewing machine racket goes on year after year because the advertising is enticing, promising brand name machines for a fraction of the regular cost. The salesmen are pleasant and persuasive and, face it, the American public is gullible.

Millions of dollars are spent yearly in national advertising of new and repossessed sewing machines. In one city alone it has been estimated that over $100,000 was spent on phony advertising.

The dealer recognizes a potential customer when he receives a phone call regarding the reconditioned or repossessed brand name he is advertising for a ridiculously low price.

THE FOLLOWING story is typical of the many daily complaints received by Better Business Bureaus throughout the country.

In answer to a phone inquiry, a glib salesman arrived at the potential customer's door to give the advertised free home demonstration. The machine advertised was a 1963 repossession with a balance remaining of $54.80. This amount could be paid in full or in small monthly payments.

The machine was new and shiny in appearance and fully satisfied with the demonstration, the husband made out a check for the full amount.

The salesman immediately began to point out the bad features of the machine—that the machine had plastic gears which would melt in hot weather etc.

The salesman refused to accept the check and dashed out to his car, reappearing with an off-brand machine. He explained that it had been repossessed from a couple who were getting a divorce and for this reason he would be able to sell the machine for $162, a sizeable reduction from the original price of over $300.

When the couple insisted upon buying the advertised model, the salesman, charming and friendly up until then, picked up both machines and stomped out of the house.

It is hard for the housewife to realize that the amicable salesman who came into her living room, is in reality just a shade above the level of a con man out to bilk the public.

Local Girl Wins Prize In Contest

Ten-year-old Lynda Moore of 1237 South Mayfair Avenue, Daly City, filled out a single contest entry blank while her mother was shopping in the Sterling Furniture Store in the Westlake Shopping Center.

Weeks later she was informed she was the third place winner of the national "Eat Well-Sleep Better Sweepstakes" sponsored by Serta Associates, Incorporated.

Her prize was a weekly $50 check for 13 weeks.

According to Sterling manager, Jack Giomi, more than a quarter of a million persons entered the contest. Lynda's winning entry blank was the only one she filled out.

The first check was given to Lynda last week by Giomi and J. J. Corbett, representative of the Serta Mattress Company of San Francisco.

Lynda's father is a Navy captain stationed at Hunter's Point.

The check is supposed to go for groceries as part of the "Eat Well-Sleep Better" promotion. But Lynda confessed she plans to spend only $7 and bank the rest.

Holy Angels to Sell Fireworks

Plans for a fireworks sale were discussed at a meeting last week of the Holy Angels Men's Club at 8 p.m. in the parish hall.

The fireworks sale, according to President Bob Payne, will be held from June 28 to July 4 on the corner of Junipero Serra Boulevard and D Street, adjacent to the Serra Bowl.

Proceeds of the sale will be given to the youth welfare committee of the parish.

Birthday Party

SHOPPERS crowd around a huge birthday cake in the mall of the Westlake Shopping Center as the center celebrates its 13th anniversary. Some 10,000 pieces of real birthday cake and coffee were served to shoppers last week during the birthday celebration. All 91 stores in the center participated with special anniversary sales.

Wine Flavors Give Standbys A New Allure

The everyday hamburger, so good in itself, takes on new allure when subtly flavored with wine and herbs. Equally good pan-broiled or barbecued, these Herb Burgers are a tempting, easy-do meat dish for the casual summer months ahead.

For the beverage, treat the adults in your house to tall coolers made with the same red dinner wine which flavors the meat, adding only ice cubes and a carbonated beverage.

HERB BURGERS
Serves 4 or 5)
⅓ cup grated raw potato
1 tablespoon instant minced onion or, 3 tablespoons finely chopped raw onion
⅓ cup California Brugundy, Claret or other red dinner wine
¼ 1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon powdered thyme
⅛ teaspoon powdered rosemary
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 pound ground lean beef
Shortening

Drain potato, and combine with onion, wine, salt, thyme, rosemary, pepper and beer, and mix well. Shape into 4 or 5 patties. Brown on both sides in a small amount of heated shortening. Reduce heat and cook to desired degree of doneness. Or barbecue over low coals.

When a fruit salad is the main course of a luncheon—a popular idea these weight-watching days—it's a thoughtful gesture to offer a choice of two or three dressings. Those who like a fluffy sweet dressing will be charmed by this one, flavored with wine.

California Muscatel, lemon and orange flavors and dry mustard all combine to make it a bit tangy and not too sweet. Just the perfect accent for a combination salad of melon, berries, pineapple and peaches arranged on a bed of crisp greens. Tossing the torn greens with lemon juice and a pinch of dried mint leaves will add a piquant touch also.

To complete a simple menu for a ladies' luncheon serve crusty rolls or slices of nut bread with a well-chilled Chablis or one of the varietal wines (named for the grape from which they are made) produced in California.

MARSHMALLOW MUSCATEL SALAD DRESSING
(Makes about 3 cups)
1 cup bottled marshmallow whip
¼ cup mayonnaise
¼ cup lemon juice
2 tablespoons California Muscatel
Grated peel of 1 lemon
⅛ teaspoon salt
2 egg whites

Combine marshmallow whip, mayonnaise, lemon juice, Mus-
Grated peel of 1 orange
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
catel, lemon and orange peel, mustard and salt; beat until well blended; chill. Just before serving, beat egg whites until stiff and gently fold in marshmallow mixture. Serve with fruit salads.

Those who like a dressing that is less sweet can still enjoy the compatible flavors of wine and fruit in this combination.

CALIFORNIA WINE DRESSING
(Makes 1 cup dressing)
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
Dash of pepper
2 teaspoons grated onion
½ cup California Sauterne or other white dinner wine
¼ cup white wine vinegar
¼ cup salad oil

Combine ingredients, shake or beat well just before using.

Cream cheese makes an interesting foundation for a fruit salad dressing. The California Sherry adds a little zip to its bland flavor. Because there is no oil in this recipe it has fewer calories than the kind that contains oil, mayonnaise or whipped cream.

SHERRY CHEESE DRESSING
(Makes about ⅔ cup dressing)
1 (3-oz.) package cream cheese
1 tablespoon lime or lemon juice
1 tablespoon sugar
¼ cup California Sherry
Few grains salt

Soften cheese with fork, and gradually blend in remaining ingredients. Serve on fruit salads.

Strawberries appear on the table in many forms during their fresh season, but none is as elegant as Strawberry Fluff Pie. California Port, the rich, full-flavored dessert wine, improves the rating of this dessert from simply delicious to definitely outstanding.

Egg whites, strawberry-flavored gelatin and whipped cream form the light, airy texture associated with a chiffon pie. Since it must be made several hours in advance of serving, this pie is a perfect answer to a search for a spectacular finish to a company meal. It's grand for family fare, too.

The Port remaining in the bottle can be stored without refrigeration and served as a refreshing dessert beverage or used in seasoning other desserts, molded salads and main dishes.

STRAWBERRY FLUFF PIE
(Makes 1 (9-inch) pie)
½ cup water
½ cup California Port
1 (3-oz.) package strawberry flavored gelatin
1 teaspoon lemon juice
Dash of salt
2 egg whites
¼ cup sugar
½ cup heavy cream, whipped
1 cup crushed strawberries
1 (9-inch) baked pie shell
Whipped cream and whole strawberries for garnishing

Heat water and wine to simmering; add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Remove from heat. Add lemon juice and salt. Cool, then chill until mixture begins to thicken. Beat egg whites until stiff; gradually beat in sugar. Beat slightly thickened gelatin mixture until fluffy; fold in egg whites; fold in the whipped cream and strawberries, blending gently until ingredients are well mixed. Pour mixture into pie shell; chill until firm. Before serving, garnish with whipped cream and whole strawberries.

Veal Birds Satisfying In Midweek

Veal Birds take a bit of cookery but are very satisfying for a midweek meal.

Veal Birds
Cauliflower with Buttered Crumbs
Lettuce and Tomato Salad
Fruit Cobbler
Coffee Milk

VEAL BIRDS
1 pound thinly sliced veal cutlet
1 cup cooked rice
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
2 tablespoons shortening
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed tomato rice soup
¾ cup water
⅛ teaspoon leaf oregano, if desired

Pound veal with meat hammer; cut into 4 large or 8 small pieces. Combine rice, butter and parsley; place a small amount on each piece of veal; roll and fasten with toothpicks or skewers. Brown veal birds in shortening along with onion; pour off excess drippings. Combine remaining ingredients; pour over meat. Cover; cook over low heat for 45 minutes. Spoon sauce over meat occasionally. Thin sauce to desired consistency with small amount of water before serving. Makes 4 servings.

Quick Tip

Fruit Cobbler—Spread canned fruit pie filling in baking dish, top with dollops of batter made following cobbler directions on package biscuit mix. Bake and serve hot or cold.

Syrups Can Make Pancake Magic

From Coast to Coast, America—especially young America—has flipped over pancake houses. These new style dining spots offer an almost irresistible assortment of good pancakes and pure fruit syrups.

Add liquid and maybe an egg to a measure of inexpensive mix and you are all set for pancakes right at home. The syrup makes the treat, but if bought ready made, it is costly. From out of the West comes the good news that one need not be a magician in order to turn a favorite berry into the syrup which gives the simple pancake its magical deliciousness.

This is what you will need: Your choice of fully ripe berries. (Probably the most popular for syrups are blueberry, boysenberry, loganberry and raspberry, but try the one you like best; takes about 3 cups of berries to make a pint of syrup.) You will also need sugar; light corn syrup. Unscented white facial tissues to give the syrup the magic touch of clearness. Fruit jars, preferably pint or half pints and lids. Something to use as a boiling-water bath.

This is what you do: Drop 10 tissues into 2 quarts of boiling water. Let stand a minute or two, then use forks to tear the tissues into small pieces. Turn tissues into a strainer to drain.

Wash, rinse, drain thoroughly, crush and measure ripe berries. (Under-ripe fruit may cause syrup to jell.) To each 3 cups of crushed fruit, add 1 cup of the drained (don't squeeze) tissues. Stir to mix. Put over heat and bring to a fast rolling boil. Remove from heat and let stand 2 or 3 minutes. Pour into jelly bag or onto a square of cotton flannel tied over the top of a deep bowl. When cool enough to handle, twist and gently squeeze bag to remove juice. Mix 1¼ cups of juice with 1½ cups sugar and ¼ cup light corn syrup. Bring mixture to fast boil. Boil exactly 1 minute. Skim off foam and quickly pour hot syrup to within ¼ inch of top of jar. Put Dome lid on jar; screw band tight. Process 10 minutes in boiling-water bath.

A Recipe for Shrimp Blush

For the benefit of those who like to taste a dish before they try it, Shrimp Blush is being featured in store restaurants throughout the country. Below is the recipe for 24 servings.

SHRIMP BLUSH

- 1 lb. butter or margarine
- 1 teaspoon finely minced garlic
- ¼ cup finely minced onion
- 7 lbs. uncooked shelled shrimp, fresh or frozen (15-20 per lb.)
- ½ cup flour
- 3 cups chili sauce
- 2 tablespoons Worcester shire sauce
- ½ teaspoon Tabasco
- 1 tablespoon celery salt
- 1 teaspoons salt
- 1½ teaspoons monosodium glutamate
- ¼ teaspoon white pepper
- 3 quarts light cream

Melt butter in an eight-quart saucepan or Dutch oven. Cook garlic and onion over low heat until transparent. Add shrimp and cook gently for about three minutes or until just barely done. Sprinkle flour over shrimp; stir to coat them all. Remove saucepan from heat. Add all remaining ingredients except the cream, and stir to combine. Mixture may be covered and refrigerated at this point. At serving time, heat cream well, but do not let simmer. Return shrimp to low heat, gradually add cream, stirring until blended. Do not boil. While shrimp is heating, prepare fluffy rice or toast English muffins or rusks. (Or make saffron rice, for an extra-pretty party touch.) For a party dinner, serve with a hot cooked vegetable such as green peas or baby lima beans or a tossed salad.

Refresher For Around Globe Meal

For a hot day, you may wish to start an evening meal with a White Mountain Refresher, great for an "around the globe" meal featuring a Roquefort London Broil and savory French mushrooms.

White Mountain Refresher
Roquefort London Broil
Savory French Mushrooms
Tossed Green Salad
Crisp Brown and Serve Rolls
Mediterranean Fig Tarts
Espresso Indian Tea

White Mountain Refresher

- 1 can (10¼ ounces) frozen condensed cream of potato soup
- 1 soup can water
- ½ cup sour cream
- ¼ cup finely chopped cucumber

Combine soup and water. Heat slowly until soup is thawed; stir now and then. Beat until smooth with electric blender or rotary beater. Blend in sour cream and cucumber. Place in refrigerator for at least 4 hours. Serve in well-chilled bowls. Makes 3 servings.

Quick Tips

Roquefort London Broil — Choose a flank steak or a slice of beef for London Broil. Broil close to heat, 10 to 12 minutes per side. Mash several tablespoons each blue cheese with butter or margarine, spread over 1 side of steak. Return to broiler until cheese melts, a minute or two. To serve, cut diagonally across grain in long thin slices.

Savory French Mushrooms — Broil or saute mushrooms. Before serving sprinkle with a little chopped chives and toss with a tablespoon of butter.

Mediterranean Fig Tarts—Buy or make individual tart shells. Partially fill with vanilla pudding or stiffly whipped cream or topping; top with 2 or 3 canned green figs and a sprinkle of slivered almonds.

Beef Broth Chablis Helps Watch Weight

A nice entre to start a weight-watching meal is Beef Broth Chaolis.

Beef Broth Chablis
Barbecue Broiled Shrimp
Half Large Baked Potato
Asparagus with lemon
Low Calorie Sherbet
Skim Milk Coffee

BEEF BROTH CHABLIS

- 1 can (10½ ounces) condensed beef broth
- 1 soup can water
- 2 tablespoons Chablis or other dry wine (optional)

Combine all ingredients. Place in refrigerator for at least 4 hours. Serve in chilled cups or glasses. Makes 3 servings.

Quick Tips

Barbecue Broiled Shrimp — Brush shrimp with low calorie French or Italian dressing; broil. Sprinkle with lemon juice and seasoned pepper before serving.

Potato—If you can afford a few more calories, top potato with: a tablespoonful of low calorie mayonnaise and a generous sprinkle of practically no-calorie parsley.

Asparagus—Cooked asparagus either hot or cold, gains flavor with the addition of low calorie French dressing and a little minced onion. Drain before serving.

Barney's Casino to Run Peninsula Bus Schedule

AS MENTIONED IN BRIGHT LIGHTS column, last Friday, Barney O'Malia has been considering a Peninsula Greyhound Bus schedule to his Lake Tahoe (south Shore) Barney's Casino. I am now happy to confirm this. Not only is Barney establishing an every-Thursday day schedule to originate at the Burlingame Greyhound Bus Depot at 9 a.m., thence to San Mateo, Redwood City, Palo Alto, Mountain View, San Jose and direct to Barney's Casino, he is also establishing a regular Tuesday evening Greyhound Bus trip which will originate in Burlingame at 7 p.m. and cover the same route. The trip prices vary (see advertisement), but the cash refund from all points will be $5, except in San Jose which will be $4. Tickets may be purchased at the local bus stations. The first departure will be Thursday, June 25; the night schedule will get under way Tuesday, June 30. This is a great way to spend a holiday and have fun and excitement the Nevada way. Barney's Casino is one of the newest clubs on the South Shore skyline. Excellent food is served in both coffee shop and dining room. There are two bars, lots of comfortable chairs in which to relax, and free coffee between "entertainment" hours. Everything that goes to make Nevada famous is at your fingertips at Barney's Casino. Buy your fun ticket now!

BEATLES?—Even the greatest names in the rock 'n' roll record business find time to kid their disc buddies. These are the Cascades, whose record "Rhythm of the Rain" rated number three in the world in platter sales of 1963. They are currently appearing at San Francisco's nationally famous Peppermint Tree on Broadway.

GOOD NEWS for Bay Area night club goers: The "Two old bags from Oakland" are back at Finocchio's in San Francisco. This means Comics Francis and Blair have returned to Joe Finocchio's musical revue in a new masterpiece in the line of female impersonations, this time as Floradora belles of the Gay 90's, something new and so funny the act keeps every audience in stitches. They have been missing—and very much missed—for the last six months. It seems safe to assert there is no comedy team in show business who could be any funnier . . . . The San Mateo County Medical Society held a joint dinner meeting on Thursday, June 11, in the Lancaster Room of the Hillsdale Inn. An audience of over 200 heard a panel discussion by three prominent doctors and three prominent attornys moderated by Superior Judge J. T. O'Keefe . . . . Keith Williamson's new remodeling look at his Chicken and Steak House well rates mention. The comfortable leather booths and the new counter make for relaxed dining—whether your order is a hamburger sandwich or a New York steak. All menu items are prepared to go, as well as eat in. Home deliveries, too. . . . Have often mentioned the wonderful desserts served in various restaurants. So it's time to bring the Brentwood Lodge into the spotlight with their home made French apple pie and smothered with ice cream, a great calorie climax to a delicious dinner. . . Note for note (musical, that is): You'll have to travel mighty far to top Bob Wellman and his Orchestra at the Hyatt House in Burlingame. Gentral Manager Ed Sullivan knew a thing or two when he renewed their contract —not once, but several times. This aggregation of fine musicians play dance tunes for the 21 to 65-year set with no effort . . . The Tuesday through Friday musical feature at the Twenty-fourth Avenue and El Camino Real Fireside are The Premiers, an easy-to-listen-to recording group.

I'm not the only steady user of the Charm Garden Product Key Sauce. It seems everyone I talk to has words of praise for this home table marinating, cooking, and barbecue product presented by Mr. Z. L. Loo, owner of the Charm Garden restaurant.

Armond "Chip" Turiello, who used to spend "lots," now sells lots for the San Bruno Investment Realty, Inc. Noticed he and a group of business associates lunching at Bertolucci's, the other noonday, with cannelloni and tortolini the order of the day.

The Benjamin Franklin Hotel is described as "The Park Avenue" of the Peninsula. With six Continentals, two Rolls Royces, and a Cadillac parked in front of the hotel, it looked just that Wednesday afternoon.

After you've tried all the Mexican restaurants who claim to serve the most authentic foods of the old country, drop in Pancho's Mexican Cafe and enjoy the best.

There's ample parking space at Ron's Surf House for luncheon or dinner. Special note: Don't miss the Friday noonday fashion show, whether you are male or female.

Besides serving their famed pancakes at Uncle John's Pancake House, sandwiches, omelettes, Chef's salad bowls, western-style chili, and the latest menu addition, steak 'n' eggs with crispy, crunchy potato pancakes, are munchin' good.

Rocca's restaurant on Golden Gate Avenue is fast becoming the place for office parties. Seldom an evening goes by that someone isn't celebrating a farewell or welcome-aboard event. The banquet room is beautiful; the menu, selective.

Nick and Lorraine Plan Gala Party July 3 and 4

Don't say I didn't alert you: Come July Fourth, you had better plan on being at Lorraine and Nick Gust's Pacifica restaurant. In fact, the celebration will be the third and fourth — which happen to fall on Friday and Saturday nights. This means a double celebration. Namely, the 37th anniversary of flying the "Gust colors" in this area, and the grand opening of "The Turtle," Nick's new restaurant located across the street from his "Nick's." Many surprises are in store, plus name entertainment and dancing.

Lorraine and Nick are the only owners I know who operate two large restaurants and cocktail lounges and walk only 100 feet to either cash register.

Finds Driver His Own Size

Enrico Romano is a smarty to be sure. Although his first love is the Romano's restaurant, hot rod racing runs a close second. He hired a driver for his racing car, but not until after searching for one his own size. Reason? So Enrico can wear the driver's outfit whenever he takes over the wheel to spin around the track.

"Why buy two outfits when one will serve the purpose!" said the Pacifica restaurateur.

Makes "cents" when you think about it.

George Mardikian Returns Home

George Mardikian, one of the most traveled men I have had the pleasure of knowing and also owner of the world famed Omar Khayyam's restaurant, is once again back at his San Francisco office, after a trip through Australia, thence to New York to take care of the Armenian Day celebration at the World Fair. He also attended the graduation of his daughter and, on the way home, stopped off in Washington, where he is a frequent White House visitor.

Nick Finocchio's New Tivoli is one of the oldest Italian family-style restaurants in North Beach. They still serve many of the dishes that appeared on the menu 50 years ago. Five banquet rooms available for all occasions.

An avid fan of Sinaloa star Vicky Alvarez is Marlon Brando, who, whenever in the vicinity of one of her club dates, stops in to play bongo accompaniment. Last time this happened was at the Moulin Rouge in Paris.

Want to make a hit? Plan a summer party at the Lanai. Here you will find all the island atmosphere, tropical drinks, delicious food and soft island music to match any Hawaii vacation.

"Kismet" New Caravan 'Wiggle'

Betty Sedam, Mountain View Caravan Inn-keeper, has done it again! This time it's a lass named "KISMET," who made her debut last Monday night at the Caravan. This curvaceous femme manages to wiggle all parts of her body, separate or together, during show time. The Nob Hill Trio backs the shows and play for dancing.

Rosalind Licata Asks Questions

Cute Rosalind Licata is ready to carry on the restaurant tradition set by her mother and father (Nina and Vince Licata), who operate the thriving Vince's Italian and Sea Food restaurant, long a San Mateo "foodmark." Although only 11 years old, Rosalind already has "Mom," "Pop," and her brothers, Louis and Tony, on the alert when she asks questions pertaining to the restaurant.

"Meet me at the Villa Chartier" is catching on stronger than ever these days. With Father's Day being June 21, this item might be a "power of suggestion" for dads to make dinner reservations for the family — and let the lady of the house pay the tab out of her allowance money. Just a thought.

The James Howes (he's a Pacific Tel & Tel executive) celebrated their 14th wedding anniversary at a gala dinner-party at Lew Lehr's in the Marina.

Fresh Flowers No Problem for Frank Dennison

Frank Dennison, general manager of the impressive Sheraton Villa Motor Inn, has no trouble keeping fresh flowers on his dining room tables — and at no cost to him. There is a Peruvian "doll," and I do mean "doll," Margarita Neville, by name, who acts as hostess and cashier during the luncheon and dinner hours. She has more "swains" sending her flowers — from roses to bird of paradise — than she can cart home. So, the "overflow" sets off the dining room tables.

One of the real dining out treats on the San Francisco side is the Pepper Steak Flambe dinner, topped off with Black Cherry Topped Cheesecake Flambe, at Phil Lehr's downtown Steakery.

Pair Escape Burning Car In Pacifica

A young couple escaped from their overturned car moments before it burst into flames after it rolled off the Sharp Park Road, Pacifica police and firemen reported.

According to Officer Charles Roberts, Gordon James Wylie, 21, of Sunnyvale, an employe of an electronics firm lost control of his eastbound vehicle on a curve. The auto plunged off the road and turned over on its side but was stopped from rolling further down the embankment by a tree.

Wyllie's passenger, Sandra Romeo, 21, of 359 Newman Drive, South San Francisco, smelled smoke almost immediately. Wyllie kicked out the windshield of the vehicle and helped the injured Miss Romeo from the auto shortly before it burst into flames.

Firemen reported the auto was completely involved in flames by the time they arrived and nearby brush and trees were burning.

Child Study Graduation

If this year's June graduates look younger to you, you may have seen one of the 24 youngsters from the Parents' Child Study Center on Mount Diablo Avenue graduate into kindergarten. As more than 100 sentimental relatives gathered, the children were presented with parchment diplomas by a representative of the College of San Mateo and the teacher, Mrs. Carol Hardgrove. Only last week Mrs. Hardgrove received her Masters of Arts degree and a certificate in counselling and guidance from San Francisco State College. Sunday she will confer a flower trimmed mock-diploma on her grandson Michael Fitzgerald.

With Micahel in light blue mortar boards, boutonnieres, and "clean jeans" were Gary Arnold, Mark Bennett, Doug Clark, David DeMott, David Ellison, David Epstein, Christopher Haylock, Daniel Holden, Peter Ild, Jonathan Kleks, Kelly McKnight, Leonard Nicholson, Tommy Sackett, David Schieber, Keith Soressi, Sid Shimabuku, David Soles, Galen Tripp, Eric Wahlstrom, and Lorne Zipursky. The girls wearing pink mortar boards and carrying nosegays will include Lori Blatteis, Laura Anderson, Shawn Prescott, Andrea Schlocker, and Amy Wilson. Afterward a party was held with chips, dips and popcorn for all.

CONCERT MEET

Members of the North Peninsula Concert Association are invited to attend the annual meeting which will be held Wednesday, at 8 p.m. in the Conference Room of the Millbrae Public Library.

PERKY LOUISE LEITNER, the new Miss South San Francisco, was the first official contestant to be chosen for the 1964 San Mateo County Fair and Fiesta Miss Dream Girl Contest. The winner will reign over the nine-day fair from July 31 to August 8 and will go on to represent the county in the Maid of California contest at the State Fair.

Burlingame Cuts Budget For Schools

A tentative 1964-65 budget lower than the current year's cost was adopted Monday night by Burlingame Elementary school trustees.

The new figure is $3,120,377 and will cause little change in the present tax rate of $1.90 per $100 assessed valuation, according to Superintendent George White.

The past year's budget of $2,194,310 included considerably more capital outlay and reserve, he commented.

Trustees set a public hearing on the budget for their regular session Augst 5. The figures will be thoroughly combed between now and then, White promised.

Mrs. Elinor Rusch, 1384 Hillside Circle, was named to fill the trustee spot left vacant by the resignation last month of Mrs. Ruth McCarley. The term is to expire June 30, 1965.

Transporation bids, held over from last month, were awarded, with intra-district contracts going to the San Mateo-Burlingame Transit Company and the county-wide contract for deaf children going to ServiCar of Northern California, at San Mateo.

Eight bids for paving and drainage work at Intermediate, Hoover, and McKinley schools were opened, with low bidder Lowrie Paving Company of South San Francisco getting the job at $15,488.

Trustees authorized White to add additional coverage to their insurance plan, an "all-risk" policy for audio visual and musical instruments, because of losses from thefts this year.

Mrs. Lois Kahn of San Mateo was hired as a primary teacher, and David Wedeking of San Bruno employed as a fifth grade instructor.

Bids will be sought for reroofing Lincoln school and for sprinklers around the new building at Franklin school, trustees decided.

A special meeting was scheduled June 23 to discuss regrouping the administrative staff, upon recommendation of Superintendent White.

CSM Early Signup Set

Some $19,000 was allocated by the College of San Mateo board of trustees to pay the cost of precollege counseling and registration for a 14-day period prior to the opening of the fall semester next September.

Dr. Julio Bortolazzo, college president, estimates that 7,210 students will take advantage of the counseling and early registration. Dates for the program are August 12 through September 1, with late registration scheduled for September 4. The funds will be used to pay salaries of counselors, who will receive $35 a day.

Hillsborough Pupil Prize

Gary E. Burtchaell, a student from Hillsborough, has received the coveted Sterling Silver Diploma of the Colorado School of Mines in commencement observances June 6.

The awarding of the diploma engraved on silver culminates a course of intensive engineering education which only a few students complete in 4½ years.

The Hillsborough youth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Burtchaell of Hillsborough and a graduate of Burlingame High School.

Tongue Slips On Pheasant

San Mateo Planning Department Secretary Mrs. Mary Jassouy has pledged she never more will attempt to aid anyone in pronouncing a name.

The other night at a city planning commission meeting, she handed a note to Acting Chairman Cecil Wells, pointing out the name of the city's new engineer, Robert Bezzant rhymes with pheasant.

Wells promptly pleasantly addressed Bezzant, as "Mr. Pheasant."

Boy Recovers From Ordeal

Craig Hammack celebrated his seventh birthday yesterday recovering from his ordeal in the La Honda hills but the plucky lad was the toast of his neighborhood friends at 1727 Lake Street, San Mateo.

Particular credit was paid today for the more than 100 Indian Guides who turned out in the county to look for the youth. The boy was found by a member of the YMCA Guide group, Darwin Lemon of San Mateo.

Sun Rises 05:46 Sun Sets 20:34
Moon Rises 12:54 Moon Sets 01:26
WEDNESDAY
Sun Rises 05:47 Sun Sets 20:34
Moon Rises 13.55 Moon Sets 01:52

The sun, moon and tide tables show the hours of the day, numbered consecutively from 0100 (1 a.m.) to 24:00 (midnight) instead of using 12 hours twice followed by a.m., or p.m. Noon is 12:00, 1 p.m. is 13:00. This is the practice followed by the army, navy and all government tide tables and almanacs.

Times and heights of tides at San Mateo Bridge, California. Furnished by Marine Exchange, Inc., from Coast and Geodetic Survey Data. Half Moon Bay tide 2 hours and 10 minutes earlier.

(Pacific Daylight Saving Time)

JUNE	HIGH		LOW
June 17	07:10	5.9	02:22	2.4
	20:28	7.4	13:53	0.7
June 18	08:33	5.7	03:34	1.8
	21:08	7.5	14:43	1.3
June 19	09:47	5.7	04:31	1.2
	21:44	7.6	15:32	1.8

NOTE—In the above tabulation of the tides the daily tides are given in the order of the occurrence commencing with the early morning tide and the successive tides as they occur. On some days but three tides occur, the fourth occurring the following morning.

The columns of heights give the elevation of each tide above or below the level of Coast Survey chart soundings. The numbers are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign or dash (-) when the numbers are subtracted from the depths given by the chart (U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey).
